

Hello, writer and friend

I enjoy the work Gabit Musrepov. I would really like to have more of our writers. And if you imagine that he is alive (and the ancients believe that the person is alive, until the land pronounce his name), I would like to write him a letter. Here it is:

Hello dear Gabit Makhmutovich, favorite writers and others: often I remember how there were certain situations my favorite characters, and try to do the same. Very difficult for me to name the most favorite piece –each fascinates me and cast a spell. I really-really like the book “once and for all life”. I have read many books, but I could not find your favorite, the best.

I really wanted to write as Gabit Musrepov, but I’m afraid my imagination is not enough for such a beautiful and wondering stories. I do not want to replace such a great writer like you Gabit Musrepov. I want you to live forever. Yes, and you will live forever in the hearts of your readers. And no one will ever be able to imitate your writing talent.

Thank you for what you have!
